

Nitish loses cool in Assembly over 'guns and bullets' jibe

PTI PATNA
Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar lost his composure inside the state assembly on Tuesday when opposition members created a ruckus alleging that his government was ruling the state with the help of "guns and bullets".

(watchmen) here a day ago when they were staging a demonstration to press the demand for a hike in stipends. "The 'chowkidars' who were demanding a hike in their pay are very much employees of the Home department. Yet, they were treated in a deplorable fashion yesterday," alleged Sarvajet.

Several other MLAs of the opposition party also raised a slogan: "bandook-goliki sarkar nahin chalegi (will not allow a rule by brute force, with the help of guns and bullets)". This provoked Kumar. He shouted: "Do not talk rubbish. This government will run without any hiccups. Just look at us. We are two thousand and two. And just look at how many of you have been left now." Kumar was apparently referring to the RJD's drubbing in the last assembly polls when it returned with a tally of 25, one of its worst ever performances.

without any hiccups. Just look at us. We are two thousand and two. And just look at how many of you have been left now." Kumar was apparently referring to the RJD's drubbing in the last assembly polls when it returned with a tally of 25, one of its worst ever performances.

The 76-year-old leader, who stood up to admonish the unruly members, also had a slip of tongue, as he underscored the brute majority enjoyed by the NDA, saying "our strength is two thousand and two".

The BJP-led coalition, which includes Kumar's JD(U) and a few smaller parties, had swept the Bihar assembly polls last year, bagging 202 seats of the 243-strong House.

Trouble began soon after the House assembled at 11 am, with RJD MLA Kumar Sarvajet registering a protest against the police's baton charge on village 'chowkidars'.

Hoax bomb threats in multiple courts disrupt judicial work in Bengal

PTI KOLKATA
Judicial activities were disrupted on Tuesday, as at least six courts across West Bengal received bomb threats, throwing security personnel into a tizzy and prompting evacuation and search operations in court premises, officials said.

The city sessions court and CJM (Bankshall) court in Kolkata, sub-divisional courts at Asansol and Durgapur in Paschim Bardhaman district, and the courts at Chuchura and Arambagh in Hooghly district received bomb threats over email in the morning, a senior police officer said. However, the security forces found no explosive material during the search operations in courts, he said.

The city sessions court and the CJM (Bankshall) court were vacated, and Kolkata Police bomb squad personnel, accompanied by sniffer dogs, checked the entire premises, the officer said. Similar operations were carried out at other courts in the state.

Asked if the simultaneous bomb threats in courts were linked to the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls being carried out by judicial officers, CEO Manoj Agarwal said it was up to the state police to conduct an inquiry and find out the truth and those behind the hoax.
